

Law School 101

A special visitation day during which high school students and freshman and sophomore college students participate in a simulated day of law school.

The program includes the acclaimed Trial of Goldilocks, in which students play various parts; participation in a simulated law class; and a roundtable discussion with law professors, lawyers, and law students.

The program is scheduled from 10:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M., Friday, February 26.

Complimentary lunch is included.

Group transportation from Portland will be arranged. Call for details. Students, prelaw advisers, and counselors are invited to participate.

The University of Oregon is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request. Accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided if requested in advance.
